NEHAWU WELCOMES BLOEMFONTEIN HIGH COURT DECISION

Friday December 15, 2017

The National Education, Health and Allied Workers' Union [NEHAWU] welcomes the decision of the Bloemfontein High Court in declaring the African National Congress [ANC] Free State 8th Provincial Congress unlawful and void. The court ruled that Ace Magashule is not the ANC Chairperson anymore, his election is null and void.

As NEHAWU, we want to warn Magashule that next time he wants to talk about taking over our structures he should first learn to obey the constitution of the ANC. His inability to observe and respect the constitution has led to some branches not attending the 54th National Congress of the ANC.

We want to wish the ANC a successful conference which will be characterised by robust debates on how to ensure that the NDR is back on track.
